1 to Qwest and that, in part, form the background to this docket.
2 Having this matter resolved before the end of 2000 both takes 3 full advantage of this institutional knowledge of related matters
4 and prevents the delay that is inevitable if a new commissioner
5 is required to vote on this matter.
6

7 At the pre-hearing conference, Staff and Qwest indicated
8 that they were prepared to file both briefs and suggested
9 clarifying language to the settlement agreement and price cap
10 plan by December 11, 2000. Only one party indicated a difficulty 11 meeting a briefing deadline of December 11, 2000. Mr. Dixon of 12 WorldCom indicated that he was in hearings in Colorado on 13 December 12, 13, 14 and 15. However, since this transcript in 14 this matter has been completed, there is no reason to delay the 15 filing of briefs beyond December 12, 2000, making Mr. Dixon's 16 unavailability after December 11, 2000 irrelevant for the 17 purposes of setting a deadline. The issues in this matter have 18 been fully discussed in the pre-filed testimony, live testimony
19 and exhibits filed by the parties. Briefs will serve only a 20 limited function in this case in light of the fact that the 21 parties have already made all of the arguments for and against 22 the settlement agreement at great length. Under these 23 circumstances, limiting the briefing deadline to December 12 will 24 not unfairly prejudice any of the parties.
